The Partner Support Group is for those in neurodiverse relationships with a spouse/partner who has a confirmed or suspected autism spectrum profile.

---

The group meeting is a positive and supportive time to share experiences, gain information and understanding about how neurodiversity affects couple relationships.

Facilitator: Cheryl Rhodes, LMFT
Licensed Marriage and Family
Therapist, Certified Neurodiverse
Couples Therapist.

Cheryl is an experienced mental health practitioner and support group leader who has worked with families and individuals with autism and developmental disabilities for over 30 years.
